WHEN YOU ARRIVE

Small and secluded situated on 61 green wooded acres in the Chippewa National Forest. Nestled between Kitchi Lake and Kitchi Creek, a gentle quiet area with nature trails where deer and fox roam. You will hear the call of the loon, see pheasants, ducks, geese, blue heron, red headed woodpeckers, and the eagles who nest nearby. If you are an early riser, mornings are clear, clean, fresh, and beautiful, a silent time. Evenings hold gorgeous sunsets over the lake. You will enjoy the colors and splendor. The chain of lakes offers Eight lakes and two rivers for excellent fishing, boating and water skiing. Our shoreline has a gentle slope and the jetty provides fun fishing.

CABINS

Our cabins have newer three-season, knotty pine porches with beautiful views of the lake. Our cabins have fully equipped kitchens with microwaves, coffee makers, toasters, and refrigerator/freezer combos. Carpeted bedrooms, color televisions, DirectTV, recliners, electric heat, wireless internet, showers and SOFT WATER make your stay very enjoyable. All cabins have a fire ring, picnic table, charcoal & gas grill available for your use.
